

Women of STAC 2021 Bursary Application STAC Member Companies

The Women of STAC Bursary fund was established to support career advancement of Canadian women working for STAC Member companies. The selected recipient will receive up to $2,000 for reimbursement of successful completion of training courses.

The following are the criteria for applicants:

- Currently employed by STAC Member company
- Canadian resident
- Self-identify as female
- Applicants must be pursuing advanced education to promote career growth within the industry
  - Examples (project management, safety, train the trainer, programming, leadership, finance, etc.)
- Have completed at least two years of employment within the industry
- Candidate to submit paragraph documenting their current role within the company and how the bursary would be used to advance their career growth within the industry.

Applicant Information

First:	Last:
---------------	--------------

Address:

Street:	City:
Province:	Postal Code:

Phone #		Email address:
----------------	--	-----------------------	--

STAC Member Company Name
Hire Date:

Description and title/name of proposed training or course and provider or institution:
Estimated commencement date of proposed training or course:
Estimated completion date of proposed training or course:
Estimated cost of proposed training or course:
Current Role:
Please tell us about your current role in the industry and how the bursary will be used to advance your career within the Telecom industry.
What does safety mean to you and how do you promote safe practices in your workplace?

STAC Member Company Reference (Please provide the name of someone at your current company who can validate the proposed training course)	Name:  Position:  Phone:  Email:
--	--

☐

By checking this box, you consent to STAC using your name and image on STAC social media, the STAC website and the STAC newsletter in an announcement if selected to receive the Women of STAC Bursary Fund.

Applicant's Signature _____

Date (dd/mm/yyyy): ____ / ____ / 2021

The application deadline is March 19, 2021. Your application should be sent to info@stacouncil.ca and must be received on or before March 19, 2021, 11:59 p.m. PST.

Terms and Conditions:

- For courses that have not yet been completed/fully paid for, the selected applicant has a limit of two years from the date of the bursary being awarded to complete the course or training that they list in their form
- For any courses that have already been completed and paid for, these must be identified on the form and to be eligible for reimbursement they must have been/be completed by December 31, 2022
- Proof of payment is required in order to receive reimbursement – payment must have been a personal expense
- Proof of completion is required that clearly demonstrates that the bursary recipient has completed the course for which they applied. Additional verification may be required.